SEPTEMBER
22 & 23

Hagerstown, MD

Welcome and thank you for joining us for the 10th Annual Maryland Early Childhood Conference– a “hybrid” event to allow for virtual/remote participation!

Please take a few moments to read through this Guide on how to navigate the Whova platform, whether you’re joining us virtually or in-person in Hagerstown, MD.

Navigating the Whova Website/Mobile App

Q. What will Whova be used for?

A. Whova is your digital resource for all event-related information – whether you’re logging in via the mobile app or the desktop website. On Whova you can view the full agenda and build your personal schedule, connect with other attendees via messaging and the discussion board, and browse resources from our partners.

Please Note: This guide focuses mainly on the Whova mobile app.

Q. How do I navigate the mobile app?

A. When you open the mobile app you will be on the Home page; you can always return here from the bottom navigation bar. On the Home page you will find information on the event, as well as links to Additional Resources that you may find helpful.

You will also notice several links on the bottom navigation bar related to different content for the event, including the Agenda, Attendee list, Community boards, and Messages.

- Agenda: View the full meeting agenda, and also build your own personal agenda (these are the sessions that you registered for).
- Attendees: Browse the Attendees list, with filters available to see who is joining us in person or virtually.
- Community: Engage in discussions with other attendees, schedule a meetup, and more!
- Messages: Any direct messages from other attendees will appear here.

Q. How do I navigate the agenda and build my own schedule?

A. Click on the "Agenda" button on the bottom navigation bar. From there you will be taken to a page with the full conference agenda. To easily sort the agenda, click on the "Filter by Tags" button at the top of the screen to open a list of all Tags; click the check box for either "In-Person only" or "Virtual only" and then "Apply" to view the appropriate sessions.

Q. How do I register for sessions and build my own personalized agenda?

A. To register for your sessions, click on the session title. To add a session to your personal agenda, click the plus sign / calendar icon; this will also prompt you as to whether you want a reminder of the session start time on your mobile device.

Q. How long will the virtual site and content be available?

A. For conference registrants, access to the site, including Community boards and attendee messaging, will be accessible for up three months after the event.

Breakout Sessions will not be recorded. Sessions must be attended at the designated time (either in-person or virtually) to receive attendance credit.
